Trustworthy Digital Identity International Conference 2023

Submitted academic papers written in English, must have not been published before, and not be under review for any other conference or publication. They must be written in a formal style and present findings of a research study or a scholarly inquiry. Informal pieces, including social commentaries, opinions or 'blogs' are not suitable for submission.

The complete author information shall be included in the camera-ready version, saved in Word or Latex format, and PDF format. All applications will need to be submitted via the Alan Turing Institute’s FlexiGrant Portal, which will require a registration upon your first visit: Portal homepage - The Alan Turing Institute (flexigrant.com)

Style Guide

- The paper size is European A4.
- The full length of the paper should not exceed 5,000 words, including abstract, figures, references, and appendices.
- Margins are 4cm (top), 2.5cm (left and right) and 2.7cm (bottom).
- There are no page numbers, headers, or footers within the paper.
- Text is single spaced, not double spaced.
- All pages are portrait (landscape pages should be rotated).
- The abstract text should be indented 25mm from the left margin and there should be 10mm space after the abstract before you begin the main text of your article, starting on the same page as the abstract.
- The paper includes the author’s name(s) and affiliation(s), including address/country.
- All papers must contain an abstract.
- All figures and tables should be numbered in numerical order. Please ensure that figure/table numbers are not duplicated or missed.
- Figures are legible and placed within the text, not collected at the end of the document.
- If section headings are numbered, ensure that they are numbered numerically, and no numbers are duplicated or missing.
- Ensure that all references are cited in the text and that all citations have a corresponding reference. Please use the Harvard system for referencing.
- Please ensure that the paper is thoroughly proofread to check the standard of English and ensure wording is clear and concise.
